A SHREWD CLERK.

He registered at a hotel and said as clerk:
"I may want to stay some time, can you give me a good room?"
"I think we can let you have one that suits you."
"I suppose you try to make it pleasant for me?"

"Certainly, we aim to." "Of course. What I like in a hotel is something home-like." "I think we can satisfy you on that point." "I hope so. Now I'll tell you: If you will that I am made to feel perfectly at home during my stay you sha'n't lose any of my business."

"Yes, I'm a member of the Dakota Legislature and—"

Mr. Barber's land and Dr. Stenzel's he came upon the curious phenomenon of a little group of ancient-looking books lying at the foot of an oak tree. They were old, weather stained, and the covers, yet still in fairly good shape, and had apparently been wrapped in a dark cloth, when rotting remains and letters from their covers were found. The books were of various India has been the place, no doubt where diamonds have exhibited their most glowing splendor.

That was a singular and wild idea of Aurangzeb, when, in 1658, he deposed his father, the Shah Jahan, and usurped his throne.

He caused to be constructed the famous Takht-Taus, or Peacock throne, representing, by appropriate figures, the sun, the moon, the stars, and the planets, and the four quarters of the world.

The throne was made of gold, and was set with Feed plenty of carrots and plenty of grain, keep the cows warm, and you may have fine milk in winter.

It is a mistake to suppose that the milk of a cow is the same all the year around.

Disinfecting is a successful
